Declaration

Please read the following:

1. The Boat Launch Parking Pass is only valid:
  - When displayed in the vehicle identifying the trailer plate it is issued to
  - For the specific period it has been issued
  - If the permit is clearly visible on the rearview mirror of the vehicle
2. The permit only exempts the vehicle from payment and time restrictions that are in place in the Sunset Beach boat launch parking lot. It does not exempt the vehicle from parking within any other metered parking area or for a period extending longer than the posted time limit.
3. The permit does not reserve or guarantee a parking space.
4. The permit does not relieve the holder from observing all other provisions of the Highway Traffic Act or Municipal By-laws.

5. Any vehicle found in violation will be subject to a ticket and/or towing at the owner's expense, without notice.
6. The City reserves the right to cancel the privilege granted under this permit at any time without prior notice.
7. The City assumes no responsibility for loss or damage to your vehicle or its contents to fire, theft, collision, or any other cause.
8. A permit improperly displayed is not a valid defense for a Penalty Notice.

*Personal information, as defined in the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (MFIPPA), is collected under the authority of the Municipal Act, 2001, and in accordance with MFIPPA, for the purpose of administering parking permit services.
